FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Janet Santa Anna, President of the Resource Connection named North of Boston Women of the Year.

The Resource Connection, Inc. (TRC), of Middleton and Boston, MA is pleased to announce that Janet Santa Anna was named North of Boston Women of the Year in the Small Business Category, at the annual Lydia Pinkham Awards ceremony. Lydia Pinkham was considered to be a great entrepreneur in the 1800's; she invented a home remedy that turned into an International Business. Janet was culled from hundreds of women vying for the prestigious award.

Janet Santa Anna co-founded The Resource Connection in 1987 at the age of 29. After receiving the award, Janet said, "To be recognized by the business community in the spirit of such a legendary entrepreneur is truly an honor".

Janet is also the President of the Board of Directors of Strongest Link AIDS Services, and is a member of the North Shore Community College Business Advisory Board.

The Resource Connection, Inc. (TRC) is a full service staffing company specializing in temporary, temp to hire, and direct placement of office and administrative, personnel. TRC was named to the Top 100 Women-led Businesses in Massachusetts for the last two years by the Center for Women's Leadership at Babson College. The Commonwealth of Massachusetts and the Women's Business Enterprise National Council (WBENC) certify TRC as a woman-owned business (WBE).
