FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

The Massachusetts Staffing Association chose Jeri McDowell of Ipswich, MA their Staffing Employee of the Year. In conjunction with the National Staffing Employee Week, September 17-23, staffing companies throughout Massachusetts gathered at the Harvard Club to pay tribute to their temporary employees. Many staffing companies participated in the events and submitted their nominees for Staffing Employee of the Year. All of the nominees were recognized and honored for their achievements and given American Express gifts cheques in appreciation. Jeri McDowell was chosen the overall winner of all the nominees. She is an employee of The Resource Connection, Inc. of Middleton and Boston, and has worked for them on many assignments over the last 14 years. She exemplifies the five key messages of the staffing industry about why Temporary Help Works: Flexibility, Training, Choice, Bridge, and Jobs.

“National Staffing Employee Week is a salute to the important and talented temporary employees who actively contribute to the growth and maintenance of our economy,” said Janet Santa Anna, President of The Resource Connection. “We are happy to pay tribute to the 3 million Americans who are employed by staffing firms every day.”

THE RESOURCE CONNECTION, INC. (TRC) is a full service staffing company specializing in temporary, temp-to-hire, and direct placement of office and administrative personnel. Founded in 1987 by Janet Santa Anna of Danvers and Sallyann Tomarchio of Ipswich, TRC is celebrating its 21st year of business in 2008. TRC is proud to have been named among the Top 100 Women Led Business in Massachusetts for the past two consecutive years.

TRC is certified as a woman-owned business (WBE) by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and the Women’s Business Enterprise National Council (WBENC).
